

Bento.3

Installing Bento

Welcome to Bento®, the personal database product designed for Mac OS users.

About Bento

Bento is a database application that helps you manage and track the information that is important to you. Bento has been designed to work interactively with the Mac OS X Address Book, iCal, and iPhoto applications. If you don't use Address Book, iCal, or iPhoto, you can import data from other sources such as spreadsheets, or create your own data. Bento makes it easy to search, sort, and organize your contacts, events, tasks, and photos in one place.

What You Need to Install Bento

To install and use Bento, you need:

- A Macintosh computer with an Intel, PowerPC G5, or G4 (867 Mhz or faster) processor
- Mac OS X 10.5.7
- Minimum 512 MB of RAM (1 GB recommended)

Installing Bento

To install Bento:

- 1 Insert the installation CD. (If you purchased Bento electronically from the FileMaker Store, skip this step.)
- 2 Double-click the CD or disk image.
- 3 Drag the Bento icon to the Applications folder icon. Bento is installed in the Applications folder.
- 4 Double-click the Bento icon in the Applications folder to start Bento.
- 5 Follow the onscreen instructions.

Upgrading Bento 1 or Bento 2 to Bento 3

When you launch Bento 3 for the first time, it renames your Bento 1 or Bento 2 database and then creates a new database based upon your existing database. If you need to use Bento 1 or Bento 2 again, see “Reverting to a Previous Version of Bento” in Bento Help.

Your License Key

Bento software comes with a unique, 35-digit alphanumeric license key. Do not lose this license key. We recommend that you keep the license key in a safe place in case the software ever needs to be reinstalled.

You can find your license key on the CD sleeve. If you purchased Bento electronically from the FileMaker Store, please refer to your order confirmation email for the location of your license key.

Registering Your Software

Please take a few moments to register your software. You can register the first time you open Bento or by choosing "Register Bento" from the Bento application menu.

By registering your software, you may be eligible for special offers and other customer services, such as notification of new versions. This online registration takes just a few minutes. (You must have an Internet connection.)
